Reception lobby in Hotel Logos

Right after crossing the hotel's doorstep, the Guest meets the elements of highland architecture. Manually sculptured wooden elements of highland folklore are the works of local artists.

Hotel's reception desk is a combination of glass ornaments of edelweiss being the symbol of Tatra plants, historical pictures in beautiful, sculptured frames presenting the life of local population or a fireplace lined with handmade tiles with highland paintings. The complement of the reception desk's design, adding warmth, are certainly the beautifully sculptured wooden decorations.

Comfortable sofas and armchairs provide with comfort and convenience. While relaxing in the reception lobby, the Guests may learn the history of Zakopane, recorded on the wall, watch TV with access to satellite television channels or discover numerous attractions offered by Zakopane and its surroundings. On the historic, sculptured by hand table, there is a very precious for us Commemorative Book, in which the Guests share their experiences from their stay in the hotel.
