

Rules of the Inflatable Water Playground

1. These Rules provide the guidelines for using the Inflatable Water Playground at Terma Bania.
2. Before entering the area of the playground, it is necessary to become acquainted with these Rules. The use of the playground shall mean the acceptance of these Rules.
3. The Inflatable Water Playground (hereinafter referred to as: IWP), an area which belongs to Park Wodny Bania S.A., is intended for recreation and relaxation of Terma Bania Customers (hereinafter referred to as: Users).
4. Devices located on the premises of IWP should be used in accordance with their intended use.
5. Children between 3 and 13 years of age (hereinafter referred to as: Children) may use the IWP only if they are accompanied by adults and with their permission (hereinafter referred to as: Guardians).
6. Before using the IWP, the Guardians should assess the psychophysical development of the Children and choose the type of equipment used by the Children accordingly.
7. The IWP equipment should not be used if it is damaged or is suspected of malfunctioning, while any malfunctions must be reported immediately to the employees of Terma Bania.
8. It is prohibited to consume food and drink, as well as to bring any items which are dangerous to other Users inside the IWP.
9. No footwear should be worn in the area of the IWP.
10. Glasses, necklaces and other sharp and dangerous items must be removed before entering the IWP area.
11. Users of IWP should use their common sense and never create any situations which may endanger the health of other Users, for instance, push other Users, enter and exit from a different side than instructed, or descend the slide when there are other Users in the braking zone.
12. Terma Bania employees may refuse entry or ask the Users who are causing a nuisance and/or endanger other Users to leave the IWP.
13. Guardians should remember about legal liability for potential damage caused by Children to persons and property.
14. Terma Bania shall not be liable for the safety of Users who do not comply with these Rules.

The Inflatable Water Playground Rules are an integral part of the Rules of Park Wodny Bania S.A., the provisions of which are valid inside the entire facility – also inside the Inflatable Water Playground.
