A true jewel in Bodrum, the hotel blends a magnificent architecture with a unique sense of comfort.

Shining in Yalikavak, MGallery The Bodrum Hotel offers to the eyes its magnificently colored venues, and its living spaces enriched with the most iconic elements of the art world. Its dazzling architecture combines bohemian inspirations with a unique sense of comfort that can be felt in every corner. Steps away from the high-end shopping area of Bodrum, its offers an hedonistic time, suspended between Turkish tradition and modern elegance.

A touch of British extravagance, a whole lot of modernity: Liverpool's time for boldness.

In the 19th century, hurried passers-by would look up at its monumental clock adorned with gargoyles: Liverpool's former municipal building, erected in 1868 to bring together the services of a city in the midst of an industrial boom, continues to lead a hectic life. Sculpted facades, allegorical statues, marble fireplaces: the style is flamboyant, opulent, generous. It reaches its peak in the vast atrium, full of alcoves and tropical plants, where exquisite cocktails and a sumptuous afternoon tea are served.

HOTEL STORY

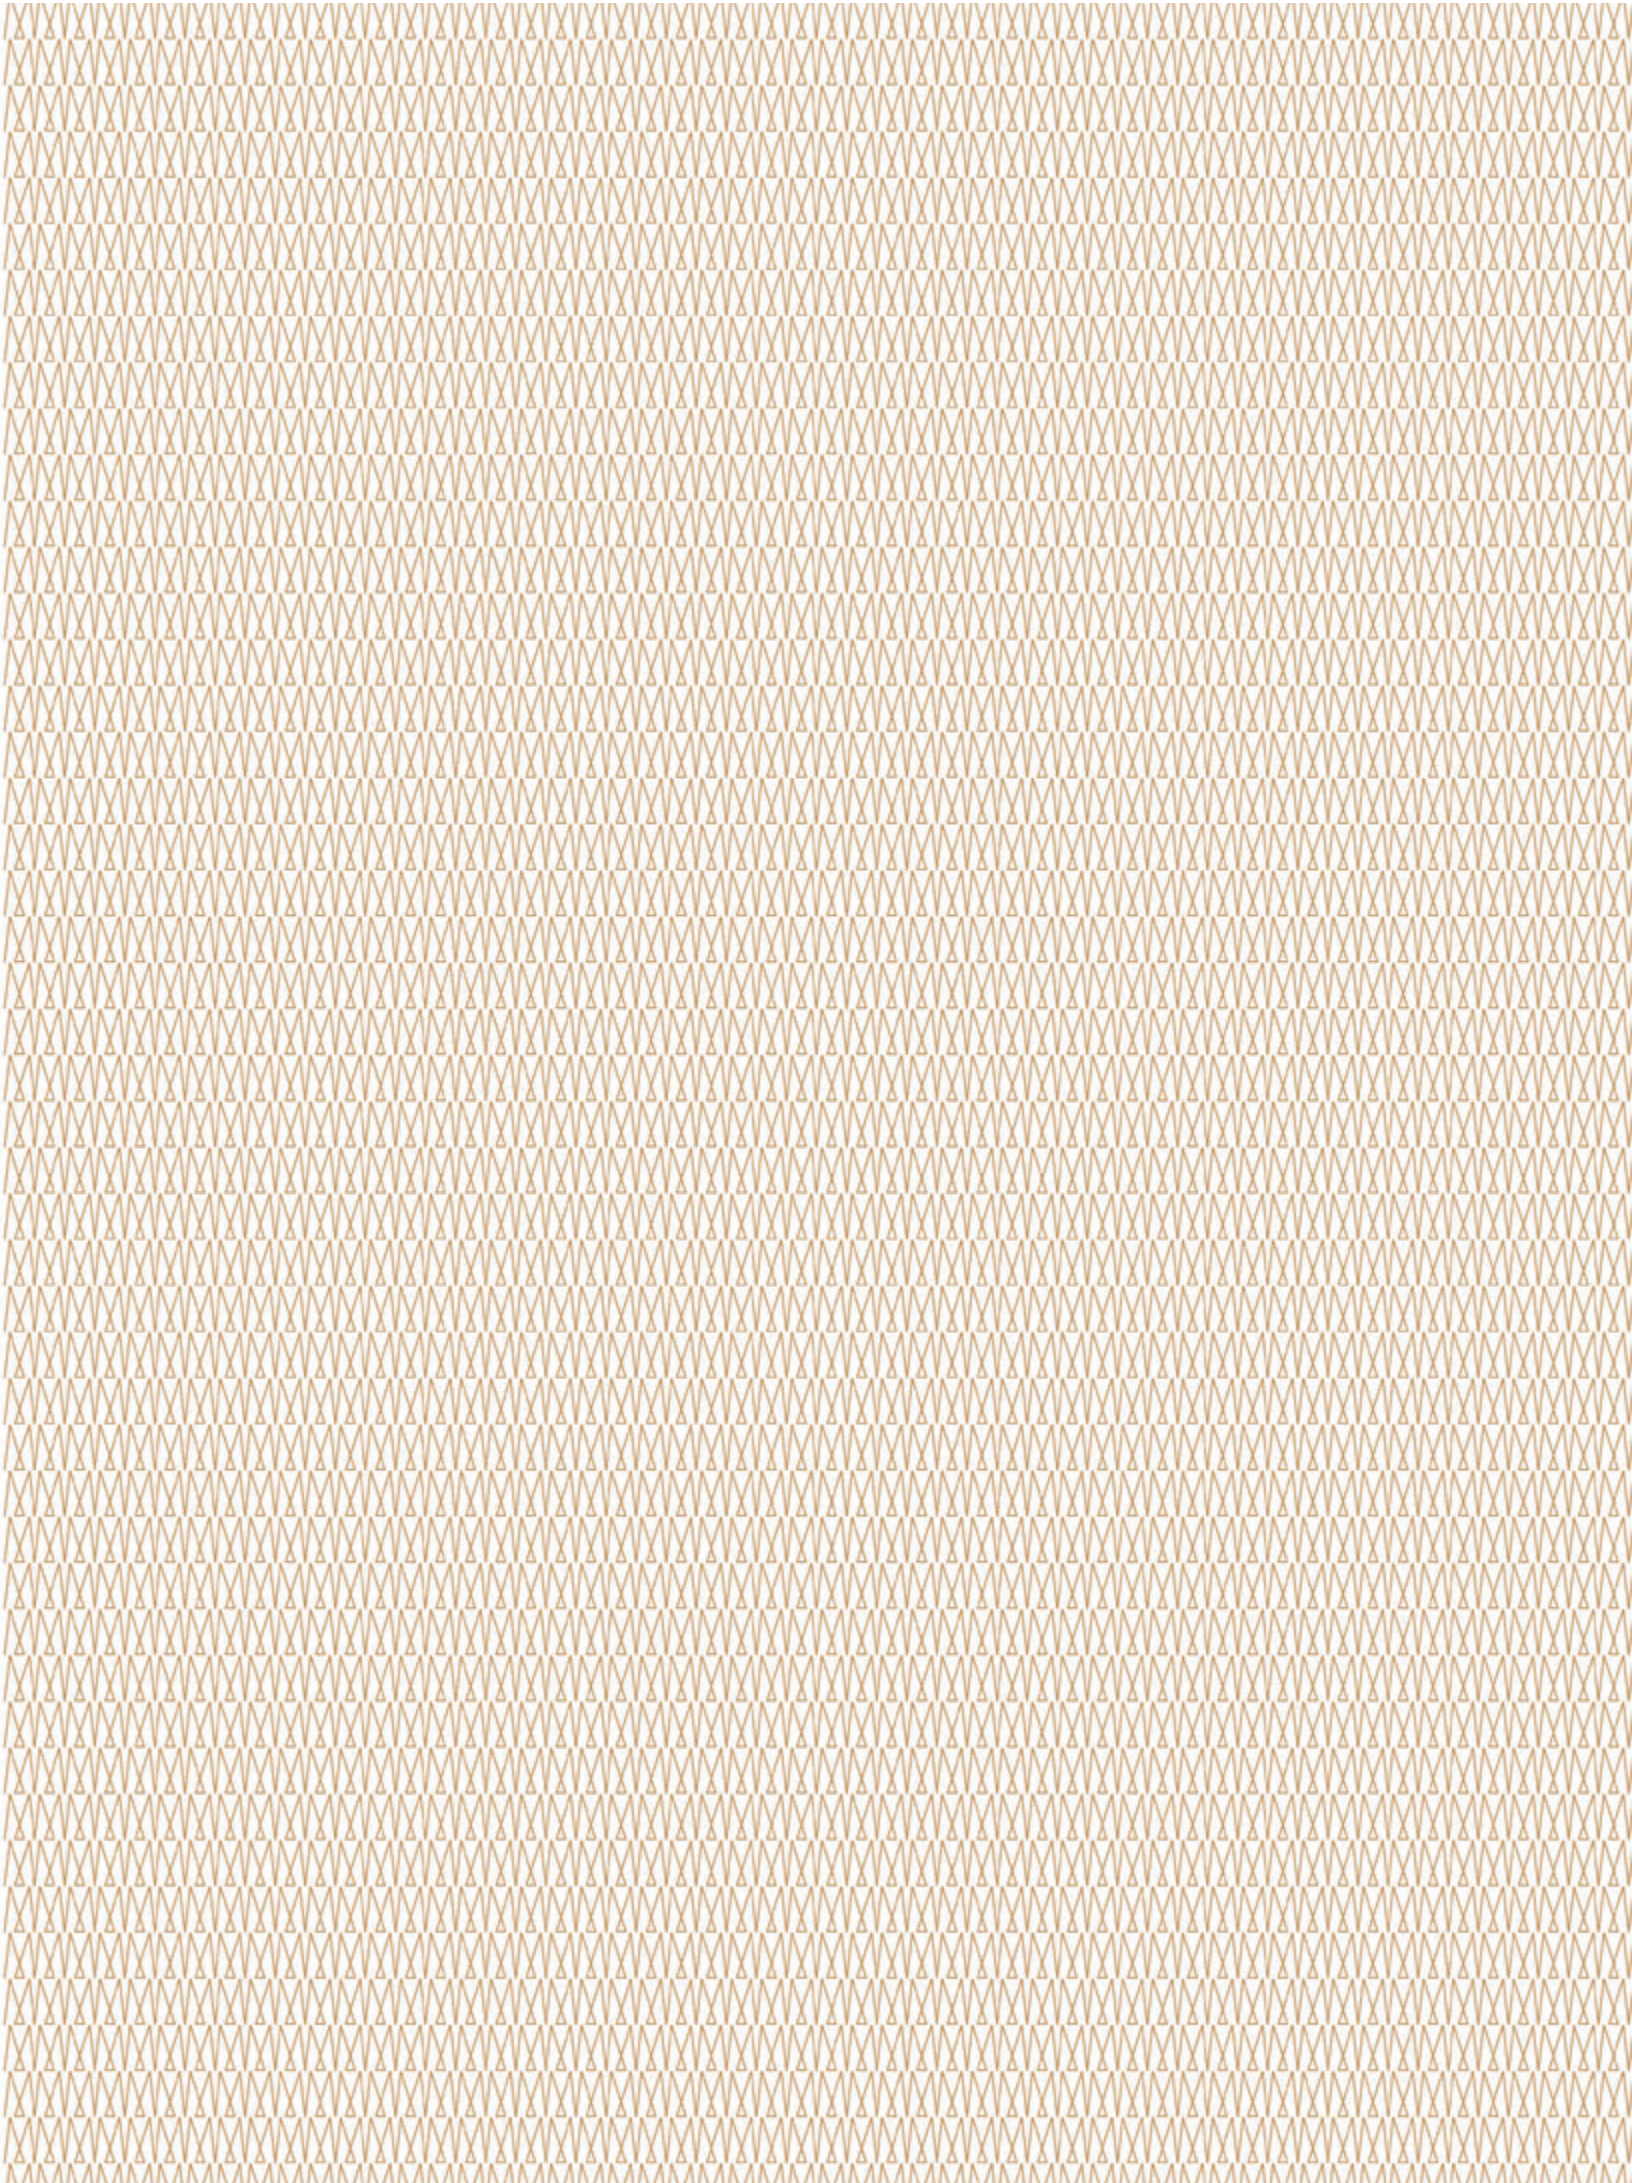

Like the macramé dream catcher found in its bohemian costume, the Bodrum Hotel is synonymous with rest and relaxation.

HOTEL STORY

A collection of clock faces sits proudly at reception which, when you look closer, feature no hands to tell you the time. Take advantage of the opportunity to indulge in time for yourself.
