leafy, served in pots

Golden Monkey - A tea from China's Yunnan province, the "land of eternal spring." An infusion with a smooth honey-peach flavor.

Epic Grey - Indian black teas - Assam and Darjeeling, infused with natural bergamot oil.

Fukamushi Japanese - The tea comes from the gardens of Makinohara City in Japan. The leaves are treated with hot steam, resulting in a sweeter and bitterness-free tea.

Dragon Pearl Jasmine - Green tea leaves picked in early spring hand-rolled into pearls.

White Yuzu - Pai Mu Tan white tea leaves with the aroma of yuzu; a fruit that combines the taste of grapefruit, lemon and tangerine.

Milky Oolong - The tea is a green oolong with a sweetly milky flavor that owes its presence to naturally occurring lactones in the leaves of the tea plant.

Awesome Fruit - Dried fruit pieces of elderberries, raspberries, black currants, blueberries, strawberries and apple with hibiscus and rosehip.

Funky Guy - An infusion of sea buckthorn and orange. Sea buckthorn fruits contain a huge amount of vitamin C.

BumbleBee - Taiwanese oolong with peach aroma and rose petals. Lightly oxidized it naturally smells of jasmine and gardenia. The addition of peach aroma enriches its floral and fruity notes.
