

MINORS' PROTECTION STANDARDS
HOTEL SWING*

THE MOST IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR CHILDREN

Child - any person up to the age of 18.

GENERAL RULES

1. Every Hotel Guest, including a Child, should be treated with due respect and respect for their dignity. Any behavior that may violate the above principle is prohibited.
2. The Staff should react in the event of Child Abuse or a reasonable suspicion that Child Abuse is occurring.
3. One of the forms of effective prevention of Child Abuse is the identification of the Child staying in the Facility and their relationship with the adult with whom they are staying in the Facility.
4. Every person, including a Child, has the right to report a suspicion or fact of Child Abuse to the Facility Staff and has the right to expect an appropriate response from the Staff.

REPORTING

Every Child should feel safe on the premises of the Hotel Swing.

A Child who feels threatened or suffers any harm on the premises of Hotel Swing from any person has the right to report this circumstance to the facility staff. We ask that such cases be reported to the reception desk, and in emergency situations - to any staff member. After receiving the report, the Staff will act in accordance with the adopted procedures, including, above all, ensuring the safety of the Child.

CONFIDENTIALITY

The information provided by the Child as part of the report is confidential and may be disclosed only to authorized persons and institutions, in accordance with the adopted procedures.

The full content of the Standards for the Protection of Minors is published on the website www.hotelswing.pl, as well as in a visible place on the premises of the Facility.
